

A MESSAGE FROM THE

Nominating Committee

Dear fellow property owners,

The KICA Nominating Committee has developed a slate of recommended candidates for election to the board to fill two upcoming vacancies. Four property owners submitted their applications for the board of directors by the Oct. 16, 2018 deadline. In their final deliberations, the Nominating Committee recommended two of these applicants as best suited to run for election based on their community knowledge and service, skills and expertise.

The members of the Nominating Committee appointed by the board in September 2018 are: Shauneen Hutchison, Diana Mezzanotte (both serving their second year on the committee), Amelia Jenkins, Thomas Roberts and Steve Rolando. All members of the committee participated in all meetings and interviews with applicants.

On behalf of the board and the KICA community, I would like to thank the members of the Nominating Committee for their time and thoughtful commitment in soliciting potential candidates, evaluating the applicants and guiding the nominating process. A special thanks as well to all the applicants who expressed their interest in the KICA board.

There are several upcoming opportunities for you to meet the candidates running for the KICA board - in their bios and statements in this Annual Meeting package, at Meet the Candidates Night on Feb. 21, 2019 (in person or watch the livestream), and also in their video interviews posted at kica.us/vote. Now it's your turn to make your own assessment and vote (voting opens Jan. 7 and closes March 8) for the candidates you believe can offer the skills and thoughtfulness that KICA needs to maintain the unique look and feel of Kiawah for the future.
