

What's Singing in your Garden?

Special Event featuring Jay Keck, Habitat Education
Manager for the SC Wildlife Federation

Have you ever wondered what birds you're hearing when you go outside? Birds are all around us and we hear far more than we see. If you're curious about what's singing in your garden please join us! Jay Keck, with the South Carolina Wildlife Federation will give a presentation about bird songs, how to attract more to your property, as well as challenges birds have in our ever developing world.

November 10, 2021 at 3:00pm at Bobcat Hall at the Kiawah Island Community Association offices on Beachwalker Drive.
