1 KIAWAH ISLAND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION 2 2023 ANNUAL MEETING 3	 MS. WHITE: Good morning, everyone. And happy Saint Patrick's Day. My name is Shannon White. I'm the chief operating officer for KICA. It is my pleasure today to welcome you to KICA's annual meeting for the membership. Today's meeting is being attended by our members both here in the room, and we have members joining us via Zoom today. Thank you for taking your time out of your schedule to join us today. I now have the pleasure of introducing you to the KICA board of directors. When introduced, if our directors would raise their hands to say hello. Your chair, Jerry McGee; your vice chair, Beth Zampino. And Beth is joining us today from New Jersey where she is assisting her son post surgery. Treasurer, Lisa Mascolo; secretary Brad McIlvain, and Brad will be completing his three-year term today; director, Alex Fernandez; director, David DeStefano; and our developer director, Amanda Mole. I'd also like to take a moment to welcome our director elect, Kevin Donlon, who is seated in the front today. At this time, I will turn the meeting to order. 	Page 3

McGEE: Good morning,3everybody. Those of you in the audience, those4of you online, I would like to call the meeting5to order now. We have a parliamentarian here6today, Jim Clement of Walker Gressette and7Linton. Jim, if you would please stand for a8moment. Is he even here? Okay. Well, I guess9our parliamentarian did not show.10MR. FERNANDEZ: Well, we saved some11money.12MS. WHITE: Or he didn't realize13how far Kiawah was.14MR. McGEE: But as Alex pointed15out, we saved some money. So our parliamentarian16is not here. So I will jump in and be that17person. Inept, though, I may be.18We want to approve the minutes from last19year's annual meeting held on Friday. The20meeting minutes are in a verbatim transcript,21which is online and were taken by a court22reporter. Do I have a motion to approve the23minutes as written?24MR. DeSTEFANO: So moved.25MS. MASCOLO: Second.

And I think that pretty much sums up what I wanted to say to you. I'm going to say something that isn't in my script, but I view the fact that I am the chair in my last year and my job is going to be to make progress and to listen to everybody, to not have factions, and to make sure that this community gets the representation it deserves. It's so hard to sometimes juggle these issues and to make everybody happy, but I'm going to do my best. I'm going to try to listen, I'm going to		 think, is a good thing. Passion about this island is something that I think is very important and something I will be talking about. One thing as the last official thing I want to talk about is as far as the governance task force. As you may know, the board went out for an independent review. We did get the results of that review on Wednesday. The task force met yesterday and went through it. The good news is I can report to you there are no significant issues. So hopefully we're going to be able to move forward with that, you know, in an expedited manner. Three and a half years ago, I came before you to ask for your vote. I did not take a typical path. In my dealings with KICA and observations by attending board meetings, I believe KICA and the board had grown disconnected from the community they served. I said these things needed to change. Because I was running

We as we announced before, we have a Town of Kiawah and KICA joint task force regarding the ARB. And we are going to have to approve someone to lead that group, and I would like to see if we have anybody who would like to do that? My preference would be Kevin Donlon	Page 54	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	MR. McGEE: Yes, go ahead. MR. FERNANDEZ: I think that the partner's position is clear. We heard it at the last board meeting. They have no intention to have transitioning the ARB to KICA. That was stated openly, clearly. So let's start with that premise. It's not a thing of, you know, having a discussion with them. They have stated publicly they have no intention of transferring the ARB to KICA. So we have obviously there's you know, only another recourse for us to take. MR. DONLON: I'm question. We had a document. I assume at some point we'll take "draft" off of that and make it public? MS.
